

First Information Report (FIR) On the night of 12th January, the accused unlawfully entered the complainant's residence without permission. The accused then assaulted the complainant using a wooden stick, causing visible injuries to the arms and head. During the incident, the accused threatened to kill the complainant if the matter was reported to the police. Further, the accused stole cash amounting to ₹50,000 and a mobile phone from the residence before fleeing the scene. The complainant requests immediate legal action against the accused.